

Digging 4 Dinner

Sound Water Stewards is pleased to continue the popular clamming classes that Eugene Thrasher taught for many years. We are offering classes on two of Whidbey Island's best clamming beaches this summer so you can dig for your dinner.

You will learn:

- ◇ Recreational shellfish harvesting rules and regulations
- ◇ How to harvest clams safely and sustainably
- ◇ How to clean and prepare clams for dinner

Date & Day	Beach Location	Time
June 10—Saturday	Penn Cove	11:00 am
June 22—Thursday	Penn Cove	9:15 am
June 26—Monday	Double Bluff	12:00 pm
July 21—Friday	Penn Cove	11:00 am
July 22—Saturday	Double Bluff	9:30 am
July 25—Tuesday	Double Bluff	10:30 am

1 Make your reservation -

Email or call:

info@soundwaterstewards.org

360-678-4401 (leave message)

2 Bring: Shovel & bucket

Hat & sunscreen

Boots & water to drink

A Shellfish License is not required we will provide group coverage

http://soundwaterstewards.org/web_digging4dinner/

Sound Water Stewards

PO Box 1620, Freeland WA 98249

SWS is a non-profit supported by contributions, community partnerships, and grants from Lighthouse Environmental Programs and Puget Sound Energy.

