Summer Story Time
at the Whale Center

Join us this summer for stories told by Langley Whale Center's Sage Maloch, former children's librarian. We will hear tales that engage our hearts and remind us of the beauty of nature.

Our next story-time will be on
Tuesday, August 23rd, from 10:30am -12:00pm
105 Anthes Avenue, Langley

Drop-ins are welcome.
We will remain open for a half hour after story time for exhibit viewing and shopping.
